Privacy Policy

At Australian ITF Taekwon-Do Association (AITA), your information and privacy are treated seriously. We understand your concerns about how personal information are collected, used and shared. Rest assured that we will take all reasonable steps that your personal information is handled in a careful and secured way.

What we collect?

Generally, we collect information such as your name, address, sex, age, phone number, email, weight, height and medical details. Photos and videos will also be taken on the day by AITA.

Why we collect information?

The information given to us will only be used to process your application. The information collected will not be shared with third party and will not be used for any other purpose.

Any photos or video taken on the day of any event by AITA may be used only by AITA for promotional purposes.

How we collect information?

Your personal information is collected when you complete and send us the AITA Membership Application Form.

Sharing Information

Australian ITF Taekwon-Do Association (AITA) is not involved in the selling, trading or unauthorised use of personal information. We will not pass your details to any other organisation.

Any changes to our privacy policies will be posted in the association's website and by signing below you are giving us the consent to collect your information.
